

We Know
SOUTH AFRICA

Lions in Kruger National Park

South Africa has it all, whether you're seeking a Big Five safari experience, cosmopolitan cities, a rainbow nation of richly diverse cultures or spectacular scenery! South Africa is like a world in one country — the ideal destination for those looking for variety in their journey to Africa.

Cape Town, voted "Most Beautiful City in the World" by various top media outlets, is a must-see for first-timers to South Africa with its iconic Table Mountain, sweeping ocean views and gastronomic delights.

A quick flight from Johannesburg, Kruger Private Game Reserve boasts some of the most luxurious safari lodging. Guests are known to have spotted the Big Five in one morning in South Africa's most famous reserve.

Bursting with wildlife, easily accessible and malaria-free, several South African game parks rank top for family safaris. Check out the Eastern Cape Game Reserve, Marataba Game Reserve, Madikwe Game Reserve or Pilanesberg National Park.

With an abundance of adventure and cultural activities, magnificent landscapes, a food, wine and art scene that has gained international recognition and a full range of accommodation styles, South Africa is an excellent choice. Convenient access and a great value make it the perfect destination for those looking for a quick getaway, too.
